DIVINE MERCY
— SUNDAY —

THE UPPER ROOM MISSION OF MERCY

The Scriptures reveal to us that after the resurrection of Jesus on the early morning of Easter Sunday, in the evening he appeared to the disciples in the Upper Room while Thomas was not there. As if that was not enough, the disciples going to Emmaus put off their journey to report to the disciples how they saw Jesus at the breaking of Bread. While these reports of Jesus' resurrection were real, the disciples were still filled with fear and doubts because "they did not understand the Scriptures that he had to rise from the dead" (John 20:9).

Today's Gospel tells us that when Thomas came back and was told about the appearance of Jesus to the disciples in the Upper room, he too doubted and said: "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe" (Jn 20:25). Some scholars say that Thomas doubted the appearance of Jesus to the Upper room because the Apostles still locked themselves up for fear of the Jews when he came back. If truly they saw the risen Lord, their action would have been differently.

In this appearance, Jesus did not discuss with them about the event of the Good Friday or indict them for abandoning him or for their fears and doubts. The first thing he did was to greet them with peace, not recrimination, and showed them mercy, not retribution. He gave them the Holy Spirit and sent them out to bring God's mercy and forgiveness to the world. The greeting with "peace be with you" must really be the most important thing they could imagine hearing from Jesus. If God had built his kingdom on the standards of tit-for-tat, Jesus would have sought anything but reconciliation to revenge. Instead, he forgave them without asking for any apologies.

In this Upper Room encounter, Jesus did something which only love and trust can do. When he chose the Apostles, he wanted them to bear fruit that will last (Jn 15:16). But they disappointed him during his darkest hour and had no hope of continuing his work. Instead of distrusting them, he went on to commission his weak and timid Apostles to bring the good news of the Gospel to the ends of the earth. He did not define them by their failures. He preferred to look beyond their mistakes to their potentials for the ministry. In this he reveals to us the message of the cross through he reconciled humanity to God and the new life of his resurrection. It was when the world failed to see and feel the abundant mercy of this new covenant that Jesus decided to reveal it to Sr. Faustina in the "Divine Mercy" mission whose feast the Church celebrates today.

So, Jesus appeared to the disciples in the Upper Room to make them believe without doubts that their faith, which is also our own, is founded on a living and real faith in his resurrection. He wants this faith to help us renew our vision about the reality of life and relationship. We will never fully know the joy of the Gospel until we have taken the leap of faith that conquers the world.

Jesus is still appearing and revealing himself in diverse ways to us today. There is no way we can claim to have encountered him without authentic Christian action that justifies a life possessed by Christ. In the eyes of those of the world, seeing may be believing, but in the eyes of those who follow the Risen Lord, acting is believing. In other words, how a person behaves or does things tells us how he or she believes in God. Does your belief in the resurrection of Jesus cause you to act differently? Or are you still locked up in the upper room of fear, prejudice, hate, lack of forgiveness, and indifference?

EL CENÁCULO MISION DE MISERICORDIA

Las Escrituras nos revelan que después de la resurrección de Jesús en la madrugada del domingo de Pascua, por la noche se apareció a los discípulos en el Cenáculo mientras Tomás no estaba allí. Como si eso no fuera suficiente, los discípulos que iban a Emaús pospusieron su viaje para informar a los discípulos cómo vieron a Jesús en la fracción del pan. Si bien estos informes de la resurrección de Jesús eran reales, los discípulos todavía estaban llenos de temor y dudas porque "no entendían las Escrituras que tenía que resucitar de entre los muertos" (Juan 20: 9).

El evangelio de hoy nos dice que cuando Tomás regresó y le contaron sobre la aparición de Jesús a los discípulos en el Cenáculo, él también dudó y dijo: "A menos que vea la marca de los clavos en sus manos y ponga mi dedo en el clavo marcas y ponga mi mano en su costado, no creeré" (Jn 20, 25). Algunos eruditos dicen que Tomás dudó de la aparición de Jesús en el Aposento Alto porque los Apóstoles todavía se encerraron por miedo a los judíos cuando regresó. Si realmente hubieran visto al Señor resucitado, su acción habría sido diferente.

En esta comparecencia, Jesús no discutió con ellos sobre el evento del Viernes Santo ni los acusó por abandonarlo o por sus miedos y dudas. Lo primero que hizo fue saludarlos con paz, no con recriminaciones, y les mostró misericordia, no retribución. Les dio el Espíritu Santo y los envió a traer la misericordia y el perdón de Dios al mundo. El saludo con "la paz sea contigo" debe ser realmente lo más importante que puedan imaginar escuchar de Jesús. Si Dios hubiera construido su reino sobre las normas del ojo por ojo, Jesús habría buscado cualquier cosa menos la reconciliación para vengarse. En cambio, los perdonó sin pedir disculpas.

En este encuentro en el Cenáculo, Jesús hizo algo que solo el amor y la confianza pueden hacer. Cuando eligió a los Apóstoles, quiso que dieran frutos duraderos (Jn 15,16). Pero lo decepcionaron durante su hora más oscura y no tenían esperanzas de continuar con su trabajo. En lugar de desconfiar de ellos, pasó a encargar a sus débiles y tímidos apóstoles que llevaran las buenas nuevas del Evangelio hasta los confines de la tierra. No los definió por sus fracasos. Prefería mirar más allá de sus errores a su potencial para el ministerio. En esto nos revela el mensaje de la cruz mediante la reconciliación de la humanidad con Dios y la nueva vida de su resurrección. Fue cuando el mundo no pudo ver y sentir la abundante misericordia de esta nueva alianza que Jesús decidió revelarla a Sor Faustina en la misión "Divina Misericordia" cuya fiesta la Iglesia celebra hoy.

Entonces, Jesús se apareció a los discípulos en el Cenáculo para hacerles creer sin dudas que su fe, que también es la nuestra, se basa en una fe viva y real en su resurrección. Quiere que esta fe nos ayude a renovar nuestra visión sobre la realidad de la vida y la relación. Nunca conoceremos plenamente el gozo del Evangelio hasta que hayamos dado el salto de fe que conquista el mundo.

Jesús todavía se nos aparece y se revela de diversas maneras hoy. No hay forma de que podamos afirmar haberlo encontrado sin una auténtica acción cristiana que justifique una vida poseída por Cristo. A los ojos de los del mundo, ver puede ser creer, pero a los que siguen al Señor Resucitado, actuar es creer. En otras palabras, cómo una persona se comporta o hace las cosas nos dice cómo cree en Dios. ¿Tu creencia en la resurrección de Jesús te hace actuar de manera diferente? ¿O todavía estás enclaustrado en el aposento alto del miedo, el prejuicio, el odio, la falta de perdón y la indiferencia?

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

April 11, 2021

2nd Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday)

What a wonderful joy fills us today as we ponder the inexhaustible mercy of God. “Mercy is the heart of God,” Pope Francis tells us. The image of a heart has been used to point to the very life source of a person as it is the organ that allows life to flow through our veins and sustain us. Mercy is the heart of God. Imagine this dynamic, powerful, compassionate, piercing, embracing, loving, propelling, penetrating, absorbing, and enveloping, transforming presence of God flowing into the very depth of our souls. It is God’s mercy that allows blood to flow through our veins. It is God’s mercy that forms every atom of our being and leads us to what is true. God’s mercy reveals all superficiality and falsehood, and lays bare all distortions, empty promises, weakness, and sin.

“Mercy is the force that reawakens us to new life and instills in us the courage to look to the future with hope,” Pope Francis continues. God’s all forgiving, compassionate love is with us. When we finally believe and accept that Christ’s resurrected transfigured presence resides with us, we then find within us a strong confidence to accept life’s imperfections and disappointments and move on. Every day is a new adventure in new life. God leaves the past behind and opens doors to the future. It doesn’t matter how many mistakes we made yesterday. All that matters is what we do tomorrow and what we learn along the way. It is so easy to remain tethered and mired in the past, but there is no need to do so. God is all about tomorrow and the work God has yet to do in our lives.

Mercy gives birth to hope. Hope for the greatest of sinners and hope for the worst of disasters. There is nothing God cannot do and nothing God cannot fashion. After all, everything we know and treasure was once nothing, and look what God did with the nothing God had! The resurrected Christ stands before us with nail marks in his wrists and wounds on his body as a testament that not even injustice, suffering and death can trample over and destroy God’s mercy. What have we to fear? Why do we keep ourselves from peace? Our lack of faith prevents us from going forward and fully receiving the holiness God desires to breathe upon us. Breathe in God’s mercy, allow the wind of God’s presence to kiss all of your sins and caress all of your fears. Exhale peace.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

11 de abril de 2021

2º Domingo de Pascua (La Divina Misericordia)

La Misericordia de Dios sigue manifestándose por medio de las apariciones de Jesús. Primero a María Magdalena y luego a los otros discípulos. El primer signo de este amor misericordioso de Dios se hace presente en la paz que Jesús ofrece a sus discípulos. “¡La paz este con ustedes!” (Juan 20:21). Esa paz que nos ofrece a nosotros en la actualidad. La Paz de Cristo que vence los miedos a las complicaciones en el trabajo o en la familia. Que vence también el miedo a la pobreza material y espiritual. El miedo que teníamos o que tenemos de acercarnos a Dios en la Eucaristía por la pandemia, ese miedo que todos tenemos al contagio del virus por falta de cuidado de muchos que nos rodean.

Pidamos al Señor, en este Domingo de la Misericordia, reflexionando desde el fondo del corazón. Señor, que tu Resurrección nos libere del miedo, que estemos seguros que Tú siempre estás con nosotros. El Santo Papa San Juan Pablo II dijo sobre la misericordia de Dios lo siguiente: “Dios, Padre misericordioso, que has revelado tu amor en tu Hijo Jesucristo y lo has derramado sobre nosotros en el Espíritu Santo, Consolador, te encomendamos hoy el destino del mundo y de todo hombre”. Es conveniente ahora que volvamos la mirada a este misterio: lo están sugiriendo múltiples experiencias de la Iglesia y del hombre contemporáneo; lo exigen también las invocaciones de tantos corazones humanos, con sus sufrimientos y esperanzas, sus angustias y expectación”. ¿Qué piensas tú de la Divina Misericordia? ¿Eres devoto de ella?
